INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION OF ICH E6(R2)

OVERVIEW FACULTY ACCREDITATION REGISTER

Welcome to Interpretation and Application of ICH E6(R2) – an online course, commissioned by the Training Subcommittee of the International Council for Harmonisation of Technical Requirements for Pharmaceuticals for Human Use (ICH) and developed by the MRCT Center with a multi-stakeholder international team of experts.

This is an introductory course consisting of the following 10 modules that reflects the ICH Guideline E6(R2); Guideline for Good Clinical Practice. The content is particularly directed at governmental regulatory reviewers and inspectors and is also applicable to other stakeholders including investigators, study teams, ethics committee members, research organizations and sponsors.

- Module 1: What is ICH E6(R2) and how does it apply to regulatory reviewers and inspectors?
- Module 2: The 13 Principles of ICH GCP
