Partners CPD is committed to helping the Partners System with learning and training needs and resources. Below is some helpful information regarding the ability to earn CME credit during this COVID-19 pandemic.

Submitting COVID-19 Activities for CME

- COVID-19 learning and training activities can receive CME credit under different guidelines. We have a proposal form, Rapid COVID-19 CME Proposal, that can be used for coronavirus educational activities. Please note: this form should not be filled out for sessions that are part of an already-established in-hospital series (i.e. grand rounds, M&M, case conference, etc.)
- Examples of activities include: bedside learning, phone interview with a faculty member who will be having a COVID-19 discussion later that day, Emergency Department morning brief, etc.
 - Link to form: <https://av192.infusionsoft.com/app/form/web-form-submitted1>
- Currently, we do not need to collect COVID-19 planner or speaker disclosure forms, resolve or disclose information. Please note, as always, employees or owners of pharmaceutical companies or device manufacturers should not facilitate any activity.
